What I love about the ECK Australian Seminar

I have attended only one ECK Australian Seminar, the last one held here in Melbourne.

I was there because I met a chap called Paul Boland at a party. Somehow we ended up talking about religion and our spiritual beliefs, as you do on such occasions!

Before we parted Paul smiled, told me I was an ECKist but didn't know it yet and gave me a HU card. He said he would call me from time to time to invite me to ECK events, but I always declined.

Eventually, when Paul rang to invite me to the ECK Australian Seminar I accepted, partly because of his enduring kindness, and partly curiosity. I don't remember much about the event, but two things were memorable: the incredible wave of energy that hit me when I reached the top of the staircase at the Hilton Hotel; a sea of people in constant motion, organising, talking, embracing and, above it all, the sound of laughter.

And the other? I considered myself a non-seeker, as I was not looking for a religious pathway. By the time I left on Sunday, I had a backpack full of wonderful ECK books and my Easy Way Discourse was on its way. I had met the Master and with his arm gently around my shoulder, I took my first tentative steps on the path of ECK and my journey home to God. I have never looked back.

I am so looking forward to my second ECK Australian Seminar!
